Navigation around:
www.netdoctor.co.uk

When going to the healthy living section on the information bar, name three items that would be relevant for teenagers to find out about their health?

Why did you make these choices?

Click onto Teenage Health.

Choose 3 of categories. Click on a topic and give two pieces of information that are interesting.

Category:

Topic:

________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________

Category:

Topic:

________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________
Go to conditions and look up Acne.

What causes acne?

What age is acne at its peak?

What are the symptoms?

What makes acne worse?

Name 3 things that can be done at home help prevent or alleviate acne?

1.
2.
3.